A WELCOME FROM . . . OUR PRESIDENT

JACK STAUFFER WILKES
President, Centenary College of Louisiana

Centenary College of Louisiana, in its 140th year of educational service to the nation, extends to you, our visitors and guests, a very warm welcome to Shreveport, Centenary College and Hirsch Memorial Youth Center. Our faculty, staff and student body sincerely hope that your stay will be a pleasant one and that you will return to visit with us often.

We are especially proud of our basketball team this year and believe that it will uphold the fine tradition of spirited competition which the Gentlemen have always offered to their opponents.

Our reputation for clean, sportsmanlike strife on the athletic fields is one of our fine heritages which have continued throughout our long history of educational development, a history that has included famous names in science and the arts as well as among the greats of sports.

The excellent coverage which has been given to us by the members of the news media is deeply appreciated and reflects the esteem of the people of our community for the activities of Centenary College.

A BRIEF LOOK AT . . . OUR PRESIDENT

Dr. Jack Stauffer Wilkes was born at Honey Grove, Texas, August 5, 1917, the son of the late Reverend Rex B. Wilkes and Mrs. Fay Stauffer Wilkes.

A graduate of Gurdon (Ark.) High School, he then successively attended Louisiana State University, University of Chicago, Hendrix College, Southern Methodist University and performed graduate study at the University of Denver, Northwestern University and the Union Theological Seminary. He was awarded a D.D. degree by Oklahoma City University and an Ll. D. by McMurry College.

A practicing Methodist Minister since 1941, he held pastorates in numerous churches besides teaching at Panhandle A. & M. College in 1945-47, serving as President of Oklahoma City University in 1957-63 and as Mayor of Oklahoma City in 1963-64. He assumed the position of President of Centenary College on June 1, 1964.

He is married to the former Annette Germany and their children are Sally (20), Rex (19), Judith (16) and Susanna (12).

OUR COVER

Ralph Schwegman executed a beautiful fake to send the opposing defender skyward for a shot that was not forthcoming, then passed off to Tommy Kerwin who hooped another two pointer for Centenary. Barrie Haynie trails the action in the background. The cover and back photos were taken by Jack Barham, chief photographer of the Shreveport Journal.

The Athletic Department of Centenary College wishes to express its deep appreciation to Mr. Douglas Attaway of the Journal Publishing Company and to Mr. Gordon May of Mid-South Press, Inc., for the generous contribution of their firms in making possible the production of this annual brochure.

A LOOK AT 1965-1966

This year's Gent team will consist of seven seniors and seven sophomores. Just how well this mixture will fare should be interesting to see. Can the seniors carry the sophomores, or can the sophomores give the seniors the much needed bench strength? This should be an interesting season.

The Centenary staff of Coach Orvis Sigler and Assistant Doug Mooty are not exactly crying, but nonetheless face the season with much anticipation. Deep down inside they are hoping for one of the best years in the school's history.

Let's break the team down and take a good close look at what makes up our Centenary team:

GRADUATION: The only regular who will not be back is Jerry Butcher (6.8). His graduation will be felt mainly at the play-making spot.

EXPERIENCE: Seven lettermen will return to the team. These include the top five scorers from last year, headed by honorable mention All-American Tom Kerwin (24.2); a physically sound Barrie Hayne (19.0), who had a foot operation and has recovered completely; Ralph Schwegman (10.2); Larry Shoemaker (9.3); Donny Henry (7.3); Harold Smith (5.2); and Bradley Peters (4.2).

HEIGHT: The Gents will fall in the normal category of major college basketball teams, as again Smith 6-9, Kerwin 6-7, Shoemaker 6-6, and Haynie 6-5 will be the tallest. Mike Gibbs 6-5 from last year's freshman team, and the return of Dave Bush 6-8, who played freshman ball a year ago, will help some.

REBOUNDING: Even though the two leading rebounders Haynie (9.9) and Kerwin (9.4) return, this is going to be one of Centenary's major problems. The major factor on the boards is that the front line does not have any bulk with which to hold their own on the boards.

SPEED: The Gents appear only to be average in this department. This will handicap them, as they do like to try and fast break.

DEFENSE: If the Gents are to have a successful season, they will certainly have to do better than last year, as they allowed their opponents an average of 81.8 points per game.

OFFENSE: Again as last year, this should be Centenary's strongest point, as they returned better than 90% of their offense (82.9) which ranked them 37th in the nation among the major schools. There are a couple of sophomores who are capable of helping tremendously in this area.

SOPHOMORE HELP: This group will be counted upon to give the seniors the valuable bench strength they need. Gibbs, 6-5; McGibany, 5-10; Fullerton, 6-3; Germann, 6-1; McAlear, 6-7; Lange, 6-1; Bush, 6-9.

A LOOK AT THE STAFF

COACH ORVIS SIGLER

Coach Orvis Sigler will embark on his eighth year at the helm of the Centenary team and faces the season with high hopes for the best year of his reign. Should the injury jinx not waylay his charges, the Gent mentor should find his hopes realized.

The personable Top Gent sits astride a 98-won, 81-lost record since taking over at Centenary and the forthcoming season will undoubtedly put him well over the 100 victory mark.

The 1964-65 team compiled a 13-11 slate despite the loss of key men due to injuries and this year's edition, if it follows the tradition of on and off years, is due for one of its better campaigns.

The Sigler reputation for development of fine teams will culminate in a Tournament of Champions in the Gulf South Classic this year with Centenary, a two-time winner, hosting previous champions of the tournament in Tennessee, Virginia Military Institute and Louisiana Tech.

Additionally, the fans of the area will get an opportunity to view Ole Miss, Arkansas, Texas Christian University, Houston, Oklahoma City, perennial rivals Louisiana Tech and Northwestern State and a host of other basketball giants, lured by the Sigler determination to promote better attractions for Shreveporters.

Ever popular as a guest speaker at the various civic clubs and organizations in the area, Coach Sigler maintains a busy schedule in community activities and his efforts have made numerous friends for Centenary College.

Enthusiastic rooters in the stands this year will include Orvis' wife Doris and their three children.

COACH DOUG MOOTY

Centenary assistant coach Doug Mooty will again share the tribulations of the season with Orvis Sigler for the year. Doug, who operates as the principal scout for the Gents, will be in charge of the freshman team as well as lending a hand with the varsity.

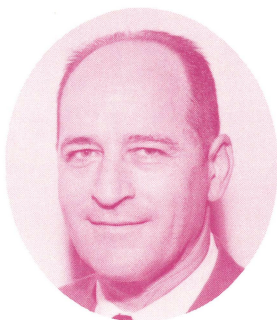

This is the time of year when Doug becomes a stranger to wife Pat and their two children, for much of his time will be devoted to visiting future opponents and analyzing their weaknesses in order to make the job easier for the Gents.

To a large measure, his successes will make or break the Centenary season, and the previous record of the Gents will attest that he has performed his job well.

ATHLETIC STAFF

SPORTS INFORMATION DIRECTOR:

Joseph (Jess) Rutkin will handle sports publicity for the Gents this year, replacing Bill Baker, who performed in this capacity for the past five seasons. Rutkin, retired from the U. S. Army, has been a sports reporter and a regular contributor to journalistic publications in the area. He attended Texas Western College and the University of Maryland.

BUSINESS MANAGERS: School—Frank D. Austin. Athletics—Joe Scholibo. These men bring great experience and dedication to a vital but sometimes thankless job, the administration of the Gent athletic program.

FACULTY ADVISOR: Oren Wilkens, one of the top fans in the Gents' ranks.

GOLF COACH: Morton Braswell, a Centenary graduate who lends his time and talent to the athletic department on a seasonal basis.

TENNIS COACH: Bill Felsher, Instructor of Foreign Languages, who devotes additional time to this important function of the athletic program.

BASEBALL COACH: Doug Mooty, an additional duty, but one he is well qualified to perform.

SECRETARY: Miss Karon Land, back to grace the front office of the athletic department with her warm smile and pleasant welcome for the second year.

*Returning Lettermen

A LOOK AT THE VARSITY

DAVE BUSH

Ht. 6-8, Wt. 192, Age 22 Sophomore

(Returned after year's absence)

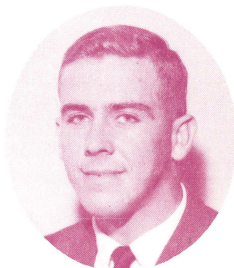

Back after a year's absence, Dave returns with some added weight which should be of assistance in taking caroms off the backboards . . . Dave was a member of the 1963-64 Freshmen . . . Dave has shown vast improvement over his freshman performance and is certain to see much action this season . . . He calls Freeburg, Ill., home and is majoring in History.

ANDY FULLERTON

Ht. 6-3, Wt. 185, Age 19 Sophomore

	G	FG	FT	RB	TP	AVG.
Frosh	19	85	47	123	217	11.4

A Shreveport lad who matriculated at Fair Park, Andy is a smooth ball handler with good moves who hits from both inside and outside . . . He has played at the forward and the guard slots, so he may be used at either location during the season . . . A high school All-Stater in his senior year, Andy was brought up in a winning tradition and goes all-out for victory.

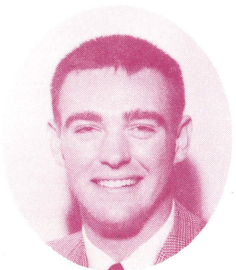

DELLIS GERMANN

Ht. 6-1, Wt. 195, Age 19 Sophomore

	G	FG	FT	RB	TP	AVG.
Frosh	16	63	41	97	167	10.4

Del played his high school ball at Belleville Township High School and proved he learned his lessons well by compiling a 10.4 scoring average during his freshman year . . . He calls Millstadt, Ill., home and is majoring in accounting at Centenary.

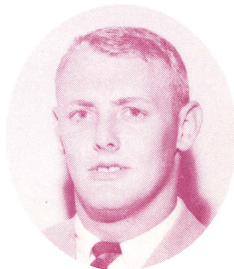

MIKE GIBBS

Ht. 6-5, Wt. 206, Age 19 Sophomore

	G	FG	FT	RB	TP	AVG.
Frosh	19	148	95	182	391	20.6

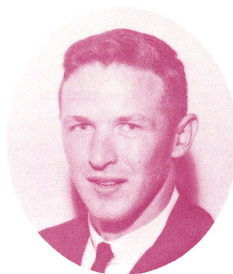

Standing a lofty 6-5, Mike led the way in freshman scoring with a 20.6 point average . . . Born at Ft. Smith, Ark., Mike's family migrated to Salem, Ill., and he starred on the court for Salem Community High School . . . Mike also excels at golf and is a business major at Centenary.

BARRIE HAYNIE

Ht. 6-5, Wt. 190, Age 23

Senior

	G	FG	FT	RB	TP	AVG.
Frosh	23	146	74	210	366	15.9
1963-64	24	126	62	195	314	13.1
1964-65	23	168	102	228	438	19.0

Barrie Haynie, the "Ringgold Rifle", was the Gents' leading rebounder and second-top scorer in his junior year . . . He topped the 30-point mark five times during the season, with his best effort, 37 points, coming against Northwestern State . . . He averaged 19 points per game despite being handicapped by foot trouble for part of the season . . . His presence in the lineup gives the Gents a one-two punch equalled by few schools . . . Physically sound, now, he should rise to greater heights this year and propel Centenary to its best record of his career.

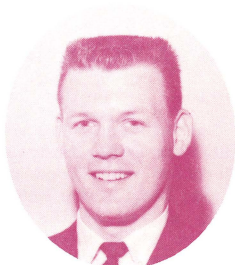

DONNY HENRY

Ht. 5-11, Wt. 175, Age 20

Senior

	G	FG	FT	RB	TP	AVG.
Frosh	16	52	28	59	132	8.2
1963-64	16	23	26	30	72	4.5
1964-65	24	57	61	64	175	7.3

Donny Henry, small in size as modern basketball players go, is long on basketball lore and ball handling and directs the action from the backcourt . . . Hampered by knee trouble in the past, Henry appears fully recovered and ready to go at full speed this year . . . He is a fierce competitor and a ballhawk . . . A native of Athens, La.

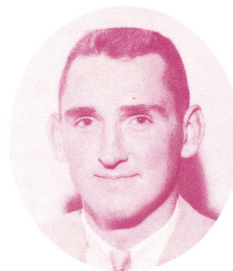

TOM KERWIN

Ht. 6-7, Wt. 190, Age 21

Senior

	G	FG	FT	RB	TP	AVG.
Frosh	23	215	97	237	527	22.9
1963-64	24	236	132	264	604	25.2
1964-65	24	219	142	226	580	24.2

Tommy Kerwin again rewrote the Centenary record book for scoring in 1964-65 . . . His 580 points for the year, coupled with 604 the previous year, marks the greatest two-year output for a Gent . . . He was second high in rebounding, too, taking 226 caroms off the boards . . . Tom is certain to rank high among college All-America prospects this season . . . His colorful hook shot draws gasps from the spectators and rates him high among pro scouts' prospects . . . Along with his scoring antics, Tommy is a fine team player and his principal concern is victory for Centenary.

BRADLEY PETERS

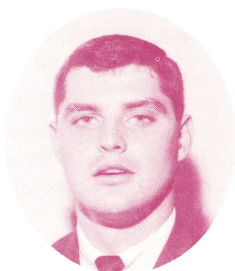

Ht. 6-0, Wt. 165, Age 21

Senior

(Transfer from Kilgore Jr. College)

	G	FG	FT	RB	TP	AVG.
1964-65	21	29	31	31	89	4.2

Bradley Peters, with one year's experience at the Kingshighway campus, will play a big part in the Gents' hopes this year . . . His play-making ability will determine, to a large measure, the success the Gentlemen hope for . . . Brad, too, looks for a more impressive point average for the campaign . . . He calls Henderson, Ky., home and was a leading scorer at Holy Name High School there . . . Brad is an aggressive guard and adept at fighting the backboards.

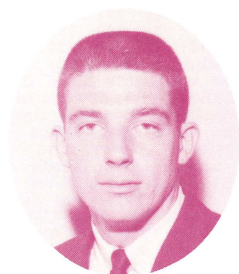

BOB LANGE

Ht. 6-1, Wt. 165, Age 19 Sophomore

	G	FG	FT	RB	TP	AVG.
Frosh	18	35	50	26	120	6.7

A graduate of Maplewood High School, St. Louis, Mo., Bob compiled an impressive list of honors on the basketball court . . . Was All-District, All-Conference, All-State and All-Tournament there and equally impressive as a baseball player . . . Named to All-Metro, All-District and All-Conference in the diamond sport . . . Rounds out his sports program with a better-than-average game of golf.

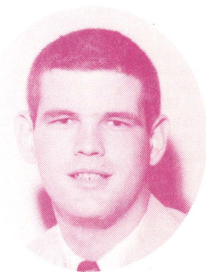

JIM McALEAR

Ht. 6-7, Wt. 210, Age 19 Sophomore

	G	FG	FT	RB	TP	AVG.
Frosh	19	78	38	139	194	10.2

An All-State Honorable Mention, Mac played his high school ball at Parkview High in Springfield, Mo., where he amassed a fine reputation for hustling ball playing . . . He was cited on the All-Tourney team at the Tournament of Champions during the 1963-64 season and made All-Conference Honorable Mention during the same year . . . With his height and rebounding ability, he can be counted on to give the Gents a lift in fighting the boards . . . Mac is a major in the School of Business at Centenary.

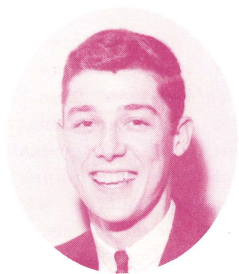

DARRELL McGIBANY

Ht. 5-10, Wt. 150, Age 19 Sophomore

	G	FG	FT	RB	TP	AVG.
Frosh	18	122	69	54	313	17.3

The smallest of the Gents, Mac gives no quarter to the biggest of them on the court . . . A demon ball handler, he is amazingly fast and hawks the ball in a manner reminiscent of his idol, Bob Cousy . . . Born at Chester, England, he attended Alton High School at Alton, Ill., where he won All-State honors . . . Despite his small size, he figures to see a lot of action for the Gents this year.

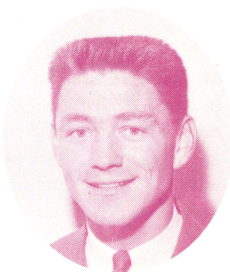

RALPH SCHWEGMAN

Ht. 6-3, Wt. 185, Age 25 Senior

	G	FG	FT	RB	TP	AVG.
Frosh	23	92	46	113	230	10.0
1963-64	21	24	11	39	59	2.8
1964-65	16	62	39	75	163	10.2

This genial Gentleman is anything but genial when he dons his basketball uniform . . . He is an all-out player who scraps every minute of the game . . . Schweg hit a personal high-scoring average last season despite injuries which kept him out of the last eight games . . . His 24 points against Northwestern State last year was his best effort and he looks forward to bettering that mark this year.

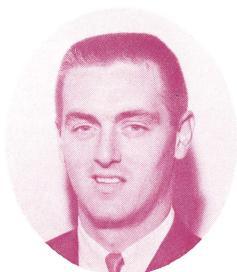

LARRY SHOEMAKER

Ht. 6-6, Wt. 190, Age 21 Senior

	G	FG	FT	RB	TP	AVG.
Frosh	19	91	70	147	252	13.3
1963-64	24	75	39	140	189	7.9
1964-65	24	92	40	140	224	9.3

Larry Shoemaker is a steady, dependable player who acts as a balance wheel on the Centenary quintet . . . His point output has kept climbing during his first two years of varsity competition . . . And he ranked third among the Gents in rebounding last year . . . Shoe is determined to make this, his final year, his own personal and Centenary's best . . . Larry's best output last campaign was against Texas Christian when he scored 27 points . . . Along with Kerwin and Haynie, he should round out a formidable scoring and rebounding punch for the Gents.

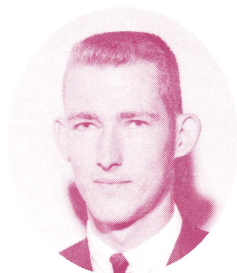

HAROLD SMITH

Ht. 6-9, Wt. 190, Age 20 Senior

	G	FG	FT	RB	TP	AVG.
Frosh	22	30	20	66	80	3.6
1963-64	14	3	10	12	16	1.1
1964-65	21	42	26	45	110	5.2

With an additional year of seasoning behind him, Smitty can be expected to make a valuable contribution to the fortunes of the Gents . . . Although he shot sparingly, he connected for a .689 average from the floor, a fine record in any league . . . Smitty will again see plenty of action in a reserve capacity and will keep pressing for a starting assignment . . . But, whether as a starter or a reserve, he will continue to give the 100% effort which characterized his play last year.

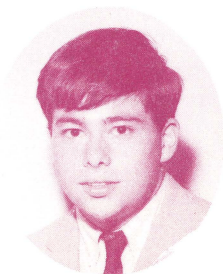

LOREN WALLACE (STUDENT MANAGER)

Loren Wallace, after a career as a playing Gent, now takes the opportunity to see the team from the other side, that of student manager . . . Loren will look after the many details involved in travel, equipment and the numerous chores which would otherwise have to be performed by the coaching staff . . . A big task, but Loren is just the man to handle it.

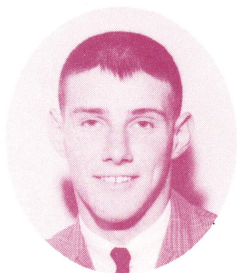

DAVID DRUCKER (FRESHMAN STUDENT MANAGER)

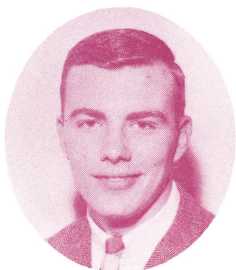

Serving his first year as a member of the manager team, Drucker, born in London, England, but now a resident of Newport News, Va., will be of invaluable service in assisting with travel accommodations and equipment for the Freshmen team.
